PANORAMA OF PROGRESS UNFOLDS TO REALTY MEN

One Hundred Members of San Francisco Real Estate Board Tour Industrial and Residential Section

As gayly as Columbus sailed past the Pillars of Hesperus, one hundred members of the San Francisco Real Estate Board steamed to the Fuller wharf today for their voyage of exploration of South San Francisco's industrial and residential districts.

A reception committee of thirty-five citizens greeted the visitors, escorted them to the array of waiting automobiles and they were whirled away to the Schaw-Batcher shipyard, where, led by E. G. Ekstrom, they were taken on a "personally conducted tour" of the million and a half dollar enterprise.

The Promised Land.

Crossing in single file the bridge stretched across the channel where the recently launched "Isanti" lies at the dock, the long line of prominent realty investors were a modern representation of the Egyptians being led across the Red sea to the Promised Land of opportunity and investment. Questions on the growth of the city, its industries, payrolls, home-building opportunities, hotel facilities, available sites, population, etc., were rattled off in unison to and with the same rapidity as the rat-tat-tat of the air-driven riveting machines. It was a great day for South San Francisco and a long stride forward in its advancement and recognition as the grown-up son of San Francisco, for these men have expressed the opinion that South San Francisco is the logical and essential industrial section of the parent city after which it is named.

The Edwards Wire Works, with its whirling wire pulling drums of wire screen machines and galvanizing boxes; the Pacific Coast Steel Mills, spreading over eighty-two acres of land; the Western Meat Company, with its maze of passageways all leading to some new revelation in packing house efficiency, and the various other plants were visited in turn by the visitors, whose enthusiasm grew at every step of their progress over the immense industrial area of the city.

Following the visit to the industrial section, the sojourners to the city were driven through the residential and business section for its entire length. The $80,000 bank, Fraternal Hall, new hospital, Library, High School, Industrial Club, attractive homes already built and the partly completed residences dotting the district everywhere, were pointed out to them.

A Gala Luncheon

Luncheon was served at Uncle Tom's Cabin in that inimitable way in which "Andy" Burke can provide for such an affair.

Addresses of reception were made to the visiting San Francisco real estate men, who responded with complimentary criticism on the tremendous growth of the South San Francisco region, this as a supplementary and essential part of San Francisco. Among the speakers were W. J. Martin, Judge E. E. Cunningham, Dr. F. S. Dolley, Ambrose McSweeney, C. E. Peck, William J. Smith and Thomas Magee.

Following the luncheon, the reception committee motored the party to San Francisco.

NEW HOSPITAL OPENS ITS DOORS

SPLENDID STRUCTURE, COSTING $50,000, COMPLETE IN EVERY DETAIL OF MODERN SURGERY.

The new South San Francisco Hospital will be formally opened on Saturday, and the general public is invited to visit it between the hours of 2 to 11. Complete to the finest details in the appointments of modern surgery, spotless in its furnishings and equipment, the institution has none of the forbidding atmosphere sometimes found in hospitals, but its every appeal to the sufferer is for the restoration of strength.

It is modern. Medicine rooms, surgical instruments, laboratories, a great X-ray apparatus with its bewildering appurtenances, maternity and incubator department, where the low light of infant life will be nursed to a glowing flame; a solarium teeming with sunshine and with a magnificent view of the adjoining valley—all are here in this institution, which represents an investment of $50,000.

The building itself is a splendid structure, and presents a most artistic exterior, with its first floor of tapestried brick and two upper stories finished in cream-tinted plaster.

Forty-two beds in the various private and semi-private rooms and wards have been provided.

The interior finishings are in white hollow tile.

The institution will be conducted as a corporation, and the management is vested in a board of seven directors, with Dr. F. S. Dolley in direct charge.

A Competent Head.

To write of the South San Francisco Hospital without a mention of its chief founder would be like relating the history of the great Armour Institute without mention of the noted Russell Conwell, who is responsible for its existence.

Dr. Frank S. Dolley, to whose untiring efforts must go the main credit for the establishment of this institution of healing, is a man deservedly held in high repute by the entire community. Among the heads of the industries, from which comes a big percentage of his practice, he is regarded as an exceedingly able exponent of medical science and surgical practice. Dr. Dolley is a personality in medicine whose influence and work have extended beyond the narrow confines of his own calling. He is 100 per cent efficient, earnest, a psychological diagnostician and, above all, is genuinely liked and appreciated by those who know him best in either a social or professional way.

He is active in community affairs, finds time from arduous work to mingle socially, and is president of the Industrial Club, which has a membership of sixty of the leading men of South San Francisco.

NEW UNDERTAKING PARLORS TO OPEN

Temporary headquarters for the newly organized firm of funeral directors will be opened in the Nieri Bros. Furniture Company.

Immediately a permanent place is available, the new firm will open a first-class undertaking parlor, which will be under the direct supervision and management of Louis Ferrari and L. Alison, both of whom bring ample experience in this line of work. S. Nieri is a part owner in this new enterprise.

N. A. BECKER RE SIGNS; MILL UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT

C. E. DUNCAN MADE GENERAL SUPERINTENDENT, G. W. FORAKER ASSISTANT.

The resignation of N. A. Becker was accepted by the Pacific Coast Steel Mill on Saturday last. Becker, with his family, is now on a vacation trip to Gilroy Hot Springs, and in a brief interview, when asked whether he would make his home in South San Francisco, declared he "would stay here until the Steel Workers' Club was fully organized and running, if it took five days, five weeks or five years."

Becker has been succeeded by C. E. Duncan, with the title of general superintendent. Duncan has been on the Pacific Coast for some time supervising the work of making forging ingots for the United States Government. He came to the mill here recently in that capacity, and following Becker's stepping out was placed in charge of the plant.

G. W. Foraker, for fourteen years at the Seattle mill of the Pacific Coast Steel Company, has been made assistant general superintendent.

Judge E. M. Wilson, president of the company, declined to speak for publication on the cause for the shake-up or of future plans of the industry.

SOUTH S. F. PLANTS ENLARGE HOLDINGS

ENTERPRISE FOUNDRY BUYS ADJOINING LAND—PREST-O-LITE BUILDING.

The Enterprise Foundry has purchased the holdings of the American Corrugated Pipe Company and plans for the extension of the foundry to include the plant of the American Corrugated Company are under way.

The Enterprise Foundry is specializing on the manufacture of an improved type of gas engine, and the demand for this product, in addition to the general increase of the foundry's business, makes enlargement of the plant necessary.

South San Francisco's industries are prosperous. Each day new additions are contemplated and put into effect. The Prest-O-Lite Company is adding to its plant and equipment. A $40,000 building is being built on its ground.

"SOUTH S. F." TO BE NAME OF SHIP?

EMERGENCY FLEET CORPORATION WILL BE PETITIONED TO CHRISTEN VESSEL WITH CITY'S NAME.

That a communication be addressed to the officials of the United States Emergency Fleet Corporation at Washington asking that one of the vessels to be launched at the Schaw-Batcher yard here be named "South San Francisco" was the action taken by the Chamber of Commerce at its last meeting.

E. G. Ekstrom, general manager of the shipyard, will be asked by letter to supplement by his endorsement the plan of the chamber.

The communications will be drafted by Judge E. E. Cunningham and D. E. Curley.

Upon the report of J. G. Walker, secretary, that the funds of the chamber were not sufficient to meet the bills presented, a committee consisting of E. C. Peck, Judge E. E. Cunningham and D. A. Curley was appointed to urge delinquent members to pay their monthly dues into the treasury of the organization.

It was voted that the expenses of the visiting San Francisco Real Estate Board members be paid partly by public subscription and partly borne by the Chamber of Commerce, and that an appropriation be asked from the city funds for that purpose. W. J. Martin, for the Land Company, pledged $50, and more if necessary, to meet any deficit.

The next meeting of the Chamber of Commerce will be held on the second Tuesday in July.

4000 ON PAY ROLL

SCHAW-BATCHER SHIPYARD HAS PHENOMENAL GROWTH IN EMPLOYEES.

More than 4000 men are now on the Schaw-Batcher shipyard payroll. Some conception of the great growth in number of employees of the plant may be gained when it is considered that only last fall ground was broken for the building of the office, there being less than 200 men on the payroll at that time.

When the "Isanti" was launched, the payroll showed 3800 names. Two hundred more have been added since that time, or in less than three weeks.

JUDGE DAVIS QUILTS; DOWD SEEKS OFFICE

Judge John F. Davis has definitely decided not to be a candidate for office at the coming election.

In a statement to the press Judge Davis said:

"I have made up my mind after due reflection and consider it for my best interests that I decline, though fully appreciating from the bottom of my heart the splendid and loyal support the voters were ready to give me at the coming election."

Following this announcement, J. J. Dowd, the local Recorder, announced his candidacy for the office of Justice of the Peace of the First Township. At the present time there are three aspirants, two to be elected. They are Judge Johnson (incumbent), City Clerk William J. Smith and Dowd.

If It Was Up to Us---

We'd shoot every man who is in sympathy with Germany.

We'd make every man filling a municipal office in South San Francisco live in South San Francisco.

We'd blackball every merchant who didn't buy thrift stamps in the present drive.

We'd protect the local merchants by suppressing the peddling nuisance.

We'd spank the kids that are acquiring the cigarette habit.

We'd have a decent looking newspaper office.

We'd have N. A. Becker make his home in South San Francisco permanently.

We'd try and have a larger attendance at the Chamber of Commerce meetings.

We'd elect Smith Justice of the Peace.

Time For Action

The time is past when any man in America can occupy middle or neutral ground. Every man, woman and child in the country MUST be classed under one of two heads—friends or enemies. There is absolutely no other ground to stand upon. I am either for or against my Government. You are either for or against your country.

It would seem that German sympathizers in this country would be more careful of their own safety than to uselessly arouse the anger of the entire Nation. They must surely know that all their outrages can have but one result—creating a hatred and loathing for them and their kind. Surely they cannot imagine that their efforts will count for anything in the final result. This being the case, the people appraise their action at its true value—unreasoning loyalty to a country they have deserted and unreasoning hostility and treachery to a country and a people that have taken them in and protected them.

The Government should force every man's hand. Every man should be compelled to lay his cards on the table—come clean—or take the consequences.

And the consequences should not be in the nature of a pink tea.

Buy Stamps With Interest

In the present drive for War Savings Stamps the Government puts it up to us all to make small economies toward a great cause. The Liberty Bond issues call upon us to look ahead and balance the difference between income and outgo, and, figuring carefully, to devote the utmost we can toward the purchase of bonds. After we have done this, the small sacrifices we can make from time to time can be turned toward Thrift and War Savings Stamps. It has been suggested that the interest on the first issue of Liberty Bonds, falling due this month, should be put into War Savings Stamps. As this interest is an amount beyond the ordinary income, applying it this purpose will not be felt as a deprivation, and the aggregate amount if so applied will be of great assistance to the Government.

Government officials at the head of the wool and woolen department announce that during the period of the war conservation of both men's and women's apparel will be absolutely necessary. They predict that in another year no garment will be fashionable unless it displays the "democratic darn" or the "patriotic patch." The "reactionary rip," however, will not be tolerated.

The duties of the President of the United States are not limited to presiding at Cabinet meetings, formulating policies and making speeches. The other day President Wilson threw the first ball in the baseball game between Republican and Democratic members of Congress, and he put it over, too.

According to statistics, it is safer to be a soldier in the trenches than to be a baby under a year old. The death rate for the soldier is 2 per cent and the baby 7 per cent. If it were optional with the baby, he would probably infinitely prefer to be a soldier.

Conservation serves the Nation,
Extravagance is bad;

A Thrift Stamp, 'tis true, means money for you,
A War Stamp backs your lad.

Kipling, writing in the person of Tommy Atkins, says of the United States marine: "For there isn't a job on top of earth the beggar don't know or do." And after the Marine Corps' magnificent service in France we agree with Kipling.

ORGANIZATION OF THIRTY-FOUR PIECES ALREADY GIVING CONCERTS AT SHIPYARD.

As an adjunct to the general efficiency and patriotism of the Schaw-Batcher Company shipyard, George E. Williams has organized a band of thirty-four pieces under the leadership of Harvey D. Hill Jr. Every member of the band is a shipyard employee, and noonday concerts will now be one of the regular features of the plant. The band is rehearsing a programme for the next launching, and on Thursday gave an excellent concert, which was attended by officials of the company.

Officers for the band organization recently elected are: President, E. J. Halerow; vice-president, C. M. Savage; secretary, Franklin J. Clazie; treasurer and manager, George E. Williams.

Treasury Certificates

San Francisco, June 26.—In anticipation of the Fourth Liberty Loan, which will probably come in October, United States Treasury certificates of indebtedness are now being offered throughout the country. During the intervals between sales of bonds the Government finances its war operations by the sale of these certificates, which provide a steady flow of funds from the banks into the Federal Treasury.

The United States has made wonderful advances in the dye industry during the past year, and is making many dyes that were formerly procured from Germany. The Germans, on the other hand, have been industriously dying lately.

America's colors—the blue field, the white stars, the red stripes, the white stripes—and never, never a yellow streak.

The letter "W" takes prominent place in our alphabet. Without it we could neither wage the war nor win the war, nor should we have wool nor wheat nor Wilson.

If America could have foreseen the consequences she would never have invented the submarine.

If the draft age is extended to cover from 18 to 49 years, it will remove from our sight temporarily many of the boys who chew gum and the men who chew tobacco.

The Girls' Patriotic League resumed their regular meetings Tuesday evening, June 25, in their club-room at the Public Library.

Mrs. Henry Ward Brown, organizer of girls' clubs throughout the country, was present and spoke of the necessity of keeping up the work, which had proved so satisfactory so far.

Miss Gardner of Redwood City told of the work being done by girls in other parts of the country. She represented the Girls' Patriotic League, which has a membership of over 270,000 girls throughout the United States. She thought it would be a good plan for the club of South San Francisco to become part of that organization. This will be decided at the next meeting.

Owing to her recent bereavement, Mrs. Leo Joseph Flanagan will not be able to resume her work with the club. The girls were all sorry to lose her, as she worked tirelessly and faithfully while with them and proved herself a leader in many ways.

Mrs. C. Coffinberry and Mrs. O. D. Hempstead were unanimously elected leader and assistant, respectively, and their capable direction of the work of the club will go on. All the members are requested to be present on next Tuesday evening at 7:30.

REGINA ELENA IS BANNER CIRCLE OF A. U. O. DRUIDS

The Regina Elena Circle, South San Francisco branch of the Druids, is taking a prominent place in the annals of that organization. Although organized but eighteen months, the circle has secured three first prizes offered by the lodge for membership drives. The circle has won $25 for securing the most members for the current year. Miss Clairina Raffaelli has been awarded a diamond ring for the individual who brought in the most members, while Mrs. Josie Ferrario is proudly displaying a diamond set Druid lodge pin, she having secured the second largest increase to the membership roll.

ENSIGN HERBERT WOODMAN LEAVES FOR ACTIVE SERVICE

Ensign Herbert Woodman left last Sunday morning for New York following a visit to his family and friends of this city. Woodman passed the examination held at Annapolis on June 6 with high honors, and his friends are hopeful that he may secure a junior lieutenancy in the near future. Upon his arrival at the Eastern seaport he will be assigned to a ship and will enter immediately into sea service.

WOMAN'S CLUB CARD PARTY HAS BEEN POSTPONED

The Woman's Club card party, which was to have been held at the Martin home on July 1, has been postponed until completion of the new Steel Workers' Club. The party will be held in the reception room provided for ladies.

A Gingham Summer

Ginghams, either plain or in small plaids and checks, and percales, plain and in narrow stripes, make up the prettiest of practical everyday dresses for the very little girl. In any case these materials are nearly always a combination of one color with white and are made up with white cotton goods of some other weave, as dotted swiss or pique or kindergarten cloth, or any effective cotton goods that will wear well.

Plaids and checks, expanded in size and in more intricate color combinations, are used for girls progressing toward the "flapper" age; having arrived there the young miss glories in all sorts of gay gingham. Grown-ups go in for big plaids, stripes, checks and plain gingham in quieter color combinations and those with narrow black cross-bars woven in the plaids and stripes have made a great success. Gingham arrived early in the vanguard of spring styles and at present are flourishing to the point of taxing manufacturers to supply the demand for them. The colorings are fine and it is a great satisfaction to know that the dyes are made in America.

Plain yellow gingham in many tones of the color are used for little and big wearers of this reliable and favored fabric. It is nearly always made up with white and a pretty example of this combination for a little girl of five or more years is shown in the picture. It is a plain frock for everyday wear with a "baby" waist having the skirt gathered to it. A substantial quality of dotted swiss is used for the bands; these are set in the waist at each side and extended into tabs finished with the narrowest of edgings. The small turn-back cuffs and the collar are made of swiss, also.

Clean White Feathers.

White feathers of any kind, especially white plumes, can be cleaned at home to look like new at a very small cost. Take one quart of gasoline and five cents' worth of plaster of paris and mix together to the consistency of whipped cream. Dip the feathers in this mixture several times and squeeze and pat them for a few minutes. Then hang up in the open air to dry thoroughly and until all the gasoline has evaporated. (Remember never to use gasoline in a room with a light or fire; it is very explosive.) Be careful not to handle feathers until thoroughly dry. Then shake well (but not too hard) and results will be a beautiful fluffy feather. Furs may be cleaned in this way, both white and light gray, with perfect results.

You Will Win the War

Two great battles against Germany are being fought—one in France and one in America. We shall win on both fronts.

Mr. Hoover says that food will win the war.

Mr. Hurley says that ships will win the war.

Other men say that guns, shells, airplanes, Thrift Stamps or Liberty Bonds will win the war. A large number hope that the other fellow will win the war. They are all mistaken.

You will win the war.

Just how soon you will win depends solely on how long it will take you to get down to first principles, to cut down your nonsensical and non-essential ideas, to discard your pea-shooter and pop-gun notions of war and concentrate yourself and everything you possess on a one-hundred-mile line in France.

Some one has pointed with pride to the fact that Great Britain is fighting on thirty-seven fronts. But this is at best a necessary evil, a defensive measure to safeguard the British empire itself. The statement was made to lend force to an argument that the United States should divert men and money to Russia. We hope that this will not be done. Until Germany is whipped on the western front, she is victorious everywhere. Once forced back over the Rhine, she is beaten everywhere.

We must not chip away our resources on deuces and busted straights.

Before you can win in France you must bury the hyphen in America, and along with it a few of the hyphenates who have been spreading sedition and plotting destruction. And in addition to these there is another breed of hyphenates that needs your attention—the near-Americans, born and bred here, often finished abroad, whose skulls are full of mush or headcheese. These are the gentry who, when we propose to deal promptly and properly with a Doctor Muck, oppose sentence with gas bombs of lachrymal stuff about there being no "nationality in art." The truth is that there is no art that is not primarily and fundamentally national; and even if that were not true, America would better endow Dr. Muck's art with nationality for the period of the war.

Again, when we try to suppress those centers of anti-Americanism and German propaganda, the German language papers and the teaching of German in the schools, the near-American protests to our business men that we must continue to teach this favored language if we would do any business after the war; and to parents the cultural value of German is so great that without it we should be a shockingly raw and uncouth people. But every American who thinks at all knows that Spanish, French and Italian are the business languages we shall need after the war. Of all the European tongues, German probably has the least cultural value. If we wish to teach a true cultural language, the instructors in a good many of our schools would better begin with English.

Before you can win in France you must take Broadway and all the little Broadways of America in hand. You must do something to the swine soul of the crowd that leads the jazz life; that swills and guzzles as usual; that brags as if its fifty-dollar Liberty Bond were engraved in its heart's blood; that cheers everything, including the chorus that comes out in American flag petticoats; and that proves its patriotism by its hoarseness and its alibi buttons.

Before you can win the war in France you must put every idler in America to work. War is the world cure for idleness. There is a war job ready and waiting now for every piano-pounding girl, lounge lizard, tango queen, poolroom hobo, doll and he-doll, perfect lady and imperfect gentleman in the country—jobs that range from scrubbing to ditching, from clerking to haying, but all good jobs at useful work—jobs that will release better men and women to fill places for which their better training qualifies them.

Lastly, before you win the war in France you must get right with yourself. We all have some taint of these things that are holding back America. We are, perhaps, half-hearted, pussy-footed, hoping that before our hour for sacrifice strikes the necessity for sacrifice will be over. But our time is now. We must be fired with the old American pioneer spirit, each shouldering his share of the burdens of the long trail. There can be no vicarious sacrifice. We must go to it with one big boss, big people and one big punch. Then

YOU WILL WIN THE WAR.

"THE DAY"

(The author of the following magnificent poem is Henry Chappell, a railway porter at Bath, Maine. Mr. Chappell is known to his comrades as the "Bath Railway Poet." A poem such as this lifts him to the rank of a national poet.—Ed.)

You boasted the day and you toasted the day,
 And now the day has come;
 Blasphemer, braggart and coward all,
 Little you reek of the numbling ball,
 The blasting shell or the "white arm's fall,"
 As they speed poor humans home.

You spied for the day, you lied for the day,
 And woke the day's red spleen.
 Monster who asked God's aid divine,
 Then strewed his seas with the ghastly mine,
 Not all the waters of all the Rhine
 Can wash thy fouled hands clean.

You dreamed for the day, you schemed for the day,
 Watch how the day will go.
 Slayer of age and youth and prime (Defenseless slain for never a crime),
 Thou art steeped in crime as a hog in slime,
 False friend and cowardly foe.

You have sown for the day, you have grown for the day,
 Yours is the harvest red;
 Can you hear the groans and the awful cries?
 Can you see the heap of the slain that lies

And, sightless, turned to the flame-split skies
 The glassy eyes of the dead?
 You have wronged for the day, you have longed for the day
 That lit the awful flame.

'Tis nothing to you that hill and plain
 Yield sheaves of dead men amid the grain—
 That widows mourn for their loved ones slain
 And mothers curse they name.

But after the day there's a price to pay
 For the sleepers under the sod;
 And He you have mocked for many a day—
 Listen, and hear what He has to say:
 "VENGEANCE IS MINE, I WILL RE-PAY!"
 What can you say to God?

FIRE AT BRICKYARD

Sparks from a bonfire started to destroy rubbish were carried by the high wind to adjoining lumber piles and frame structures of the Baden brickyard on Tuesday evening at 5:30 o'clock and started a fire which the local Fire Department fought for more than an hour and a half.

Due to lack of water connections at the plant, the Fire Department was seriously handicapped, as only chemicals could be used to extinguish the flames, which started in several places.

Ten of the members of the fire company were kept busy fighting the stubborn fire. The principal damage was the destruction of a frame hoist and pulley. No one was injured.

CLARK RICE SHIES HAT INTO POLITICAL RING

Clark Rice, well known in South San Francisco and throughout the county generally, has shied his hat into the political ring and is out for the County Recordership. Rice has been a resident of Redwood City for twenty-five years, and has been engaged in the general contracting business. He has a son in the service.

CHARLES WOODMAN IS HOME

Charles Woodman, formerly foreman of the Enterprise print shop, returned from Petaluma this week for a visit to his family here. Woodman is rapidly regaining health and strength, temporarily lost from several years' close confinement.

"Some one has said: 'If one of our boys hesitated as long in going over the top as some people do in buying Liberty Bonds or War Savings Stamps, he would be court-martialed and shot for cowardice. And if the same punishment were meted out to non-combatants for financial cowardice, an awful lot of people would be shot at dawn.'"

If the men in our Army and Navy can do without luxuries, we at home certainly can.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists, 75c.

The Pay Roll of South San Francisco

$200,000 EXPENDED PER WEEK, OVER $2,000,000 PER YEAR

A City of Promising, Profitable Opportunity

"THE biggest little city in the United States," was the comment made by a prominent Government official when the returns of the recent Red Cross drive showed that South San Francisco had gone over the top by a multiplication of six times her quota. But this is not all her record, for in every war demand made so far on this community, in Liberty Bonds, Thrift Stamps, Red Cross, and industrial output, her record is "over the top" every time. The answer is plain. South San Francisco has over 6000 of the most skillful mechanics and artisans in the country, whose wage earnings total $200,000 per week, over $10,000,000 a year.

This great wage-earning record of efficient and high-class mechanics carries with it a record of achievement. Forty-two industries in the past year have broken all previous records in industrial production, an accomplishment of which South San Francisco is justly proud. Her steel production is the greatest in all the West and is rapidly increasing. Her steel shipbuilding plant not only met every Government requirement, but delivered its first steel ship in record time and then demonstrated the high efficiency of the Schaw-Batcher organization by equipping with engines and machinery complete, the "Isanti," launched June 2.

The Red Cross drive record, in such healthful surroundings, could not be anything else than big. The sufficiency of the pay roll, the efficiency of the wage-earner, spells achievement every time.

The reflex of this citizenship and this pay roll is everywhere manifesting itself in South San Francisco's makeup. The new Industrial Club, the new Western Meat Company's swimming tank and spacious clubhouse, the splendid new halls of the Steel Workers' Club, the $100,000 Y. M. C. A. project, the $50,000 new hospital, the $80,000 new Bank building, the contemplated new City Hall, the new Fraternal Hall building, the new $75,000 High School building, several up-to-date, first-class apartment houses, and last but not least, the home residences springing up everywhere in South San Francisco, tell the story. The records show $375,000 invested in new residences last year by actual home owners in this community—every building first class and modern.

The standard set is rapidly making a city beautiful of South San Francisco, and the proof of its recognition by the investing public is the ever-increasing demand for up-to-date bungalows which now insures a far greater investment for 1918. No city ever presented a more promising and profitable opportunity for the home investor as does South San Francisco to-day, backed by her immense pay rolls and by her location within street car access of the greatest center of business and industrial activity in all the West.
